

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HARRY'S INTERNATIONAL APPOINTS PR COMMUNICATIONS TO RE-LAUNCH THE ICONIC HOTEL – THE CLUB

SINGAPORE, 30 March 2015 | Singapore-based public relations (PR) agency, PR Communications, has been appointed by Harry's International Pte Ltd for The Club with immediate effect after a competitive pitching process.

The Club is the latest hospitality destination to be launched by established bar and dining chain Harry's International Pte Ltd, which currently maintains 20 outlets islandwide.

The 12-month contract awarded to PR Communications will see the agency managing the destination's overall media communications strategies and opening activities encompassing its luxury rooms and five F&B venues.

"We are tremendously delighted for the reopening of The Club as it undergoes a facelift with exciting new offerings. Located at Ann Siang Hill, a stone's throw away from Chinatown, and just minutes from Singapore's Central Business District, the stately 1900s heritage building will be given a fresh and colourful new look. Together with our partner PR Communications, we hope to invite discerning travellers and locals with a penchant for the finer things in life to stay, dine and drink at The Club right in the heart one of Singapore's most trendy districts." said Ms Sharon Seong, General Manager at The Club.

Mr Eric Chan, Managing Director at PR Communications added, "We are very pleased to be working with The Club on their reopening. We believe the opening of The Club will bring a fresh jolt of energy, excitement and sophistication to Ann Siang Hill, and we look forward to The Club becoming both a starting point and a destination for locals and visitors coming to the Ann Siang area."

Formerly known as The Club Hotel, The Club is slated to reopen its doors in mid-2015 with 20 luxuriously appointed guest rooms, and an interconnected mix of bars, restaurants and rooftop
