Tuck in at The Disgruntled Brasserie

The newly launched Disgruntled Brasserie is a casual take on its predecessor, where the food philosophy stays true to the concept of large plates and small plates. This modern European brasserie has a more inviting and relaxed environment where guests can indulge in a rich epicurean journey.

Perfect for hearty breakfast, lunch meetings and dinner celebrations, The Disgruntled Brasserie has an all-day dining menu that includes classic breakfast selections and a High-tea set for two that offers well-curated selections such as Deviled Eggs, Mini Shepherd's Pie and Mini Smoked Chicken & Granny Smith Croissants.

The revamped décor at The Disgruntled Brasserie pays tribute to The Club's iconic heritage location with a photo wall featuring pictures of local hawkers and street traders. Spearheaded by Head Chef Jacq Lim, other exciting dishes to look forward to includes Lobster Thermidor, Roasted Pumpkin Agnolotti and a foreseeable crowd favourite, the Foie Gras Beef Burger.

Head Chef Jacq Lim explains, "In this new menu line-up, we are serving food that we take comfort in. For us, that means no-frill hearty dishes with big, bold, punchy flavours. Coupled with new breakfast and High-tea options, patrons can look forward to satisfying their cravings at The Disgruntled Brasserie at wallet-friendly prices."

Spend an evening at Tiger's Milk and B28
